HUNDRED PER CENT UNITY ESSENTIAL

Mr. W. E. Haskins Urges Unanimous Grower Support Of Any Marketing Control Plan Adopted

In a stirring appeal to fruit growers to get together one hundred per cent in the control plan adopted for 1934, Mr. W. E. Haskins, the grower leader, said: "We have seen this year that only by standing together one hundred per cent could we secure the utmost from the market. I am not asking you to get behind me nor your neighbor nor your association, but to get behind yourself purely for selfish reasons and in your own self-interest. This selfishness consists in wanting to get for yourself the last cent the market can afford to pay."

Mr. Haskins was the principal speaker at a mass meeting of growers held in the I.O.O.F. Temple on Friday evening, when about one hundred and fifty attended. Other speakers were Mr. V. B. Robinson, Secretary of the B. C. Fruit Growers' Association, and Mr. H. B. D. Lysons, of Kelowna. Mr. R. F. Borrett, of the B.C.F.G.A., executive and the Growers' Stabilization Committee, acted as chairman. Through the courtesy of Williams' music store, gramophone music was provided at intervals in the speech-making. The proceedings were broadcast over CKOV.

Taking as his subject "The Past and the Future," Mr. Haskins declared that he was not there to make an eloquent speech but to work for the fruit growers. After referring to personal and sectional jealousies which, he said, were common in the Okanagan Valley, he remarked that some one had asked him when he was going back to Penticton. His sole desire was to conclude his work on behalf of the growers as soon as possible, but as long as he could be of service he would carry on. This statement evoked considerable applause.

He wanted to make it clear that he was not looking for a job. He had two already—his law practice and his ranch. It was possible that there might be an opening for a grower on the new committee for 1934, but he was not looking for a job.

Growers' Campaign Averted Disaster

Referring to the past, Mr. Haskins said: "It is impossible to say definitely what will be the outcome of last year's operations, but we have every reason to hope that our aim of 'A cent a pound or on the ground' will be realized. However, we know enough now to state without fear of contradiction that by uniting one hundred per cent we have vastly improved our position. We in the Okanagan Valley are inclined to be too critical, so I will call your attention to some of the things we have achieved in the past year. The organization was admittedly faulty, and had we been more foresighted we could have done better, but let's look at what we have achieved. No one will question that we were due for a disastrous year in 1933. We would have had red ink on all but a few varieties; we were headed for a disaster similar to that of 1922. I hope that we will get an average of forty cents a box, but it is too early to say."

Million Dollars Added To Spending Power Of Growers

"In any case, we have added more than a million dollars to the spending power of the fruit growers, and that million has more significance than appears on the surface. The spirit of hope engendered by our even partial success resulted in an increased velocity of circulation. This optimistic spirit resulted in more business being done and a greater circulation of money. Every business man in the valley will tell you that Christmas trade was well in advance of 1932. Every individual benefited. We have, by achieving these results, added many millions to the value of our lands. We have definitely established the principle that the grower has at least a voice in the fruit industry. The shippers have recognized that the growers should have an equal voice in the disposal of their crops. Before that it had been affirmed in practice if not in words that the grower should produce the fruit and there his labours ended. The shipper alone was responsible for selling it; he took the attitude that the grower should deliver his fruit to the packing house and then mind his own business. Until this year the fact was overlooked that the

SHIPMENTS OF MACS EXCEED LAST YEAR

Nearly Three-Quarters Of Whole Apple Crop Has Now Been Moved Out Of Okanagan Valley

An analysis of the crop movement as at the close of business on December 30th, issued by the Okanagan Stabilization Board, shows that 1,007,580 boxes of McIntosh, or 79.7 per cent of the estimated crop of 1,310,811 boxes, have moved to the domestic and export markets. This is an increase over shipments made for a similar period by the 1932 crop, which totalled 952,113 boxes.

Of the total of 1,007,580 boxes of McIntosh shipped up to December 30th, domestic shipments amounted to 421,823 boxes, or 32.1 per cent, and export 585,557 boxes, or 44.6 per cent. Domestic shipments in boxes and bulk were distributed as follows: British Columbia, 61,971 boxes; Alberta, 130,463 boxes; Saskatchewan, 133,089 boxes; Manitoba, 84,920 boxes; Eastern Canada, 11,380 boxes. No bulk was shipped to eastern Canada.

Shipments of other varieties as at December 30th totalled 1,527,318 boxes, of which 347,382 boxes, or 16.2 per cent, went to the domestic market and 1,179,936 boxes, or 55.1 per cent, to the export market. The total is 71.3 per cent of the estimated crop of 2,141,526 boxes. Under the 1932 Cartel shipments of other varieties to date totalled 1,717,939 boxes, but only 67.2 per cent of the estimated crop of 2,192,576 boxes.

PLANS STUDYING COMMITTEE AT WORK

Strenuous Task Of Evolving Feasible Method Of Grower Control Of Marketing Began Today

The Central Plans Studying Committee appointed to receive and study the various plans for grower control submitted by the local committees of the Okanagan Valley got down to work this afternoon in the Royal Anne Hotel, where a room is being provided free of charge by the management. It is probable that a week or ten days will be required to discuss the plans presented to the committee and for the committee to evolve a plan for submission to the growers that is satisfactory to its members. A plan should be brought out before the B.C.F.G.A. convention, which begins on January 16th.

The valley committee of seven has been augmented by two representatives from the Kootenay area, Mr. W. J. Littlejohn, of Erickson, representing the Creston district, and Mr. W. R. Squires, of Nelson. Although Grand Forks has named Mr. J. Coleman as its representative, this district has now decided not to have representation on the Central Committee. However, this does not mean that the Grand Forks area is not willing to co-operate.

While the growers in the Kootenay area have not submitted a control plan for 1934, their views will doubtless come to light through their representative, early in the proceedings. Two divergent lines of thought emerge from the several plans for consideration. One is the firm-price method of marketing designed to put an end to the practice of consigning of fruit by the grower to the shipper and to substitute a system of firm sale before the fruit passes the warehouse door. A minimum cash guarantee to be set for this plan is the firm-price method, but some controversy has arisen in the south as to whether or not it really represents the opinion of the majority in that area. The plan is vigorously opposed by Messrs. W. G. Baskin and S. W. Dufoe, of Penticton, who, in a minority report, have termed it unworkable and impossible.

This minority report recommends: that, whether or not Dominion Parliament deals with marketing legislation, steps should be taken to obtain provincial legislation for controlled marketing; that the best type of marketing control would be that providing for a one-desk controlling plan; that, in the event of legislation not being secured in time to apply it to the selling of the 1934 crop, the present stabilization plan be continued in a strengthened form; and that local growers' committees be continued.

These recommendations follow closely the report of the Kaledon committee, which proposes Dominion legislation, or, failing this, provincial legislation. It urges the one-desk idea of selling, which is in opposition to the firm-price plan.

The suggestion that the Growers' Stabilization Committee should function on this year in strengthened form seems to have considerable support in various parts of the valley.

The Plans Studying Committee of nine, composed of Messrs. W. E. Haskins, chairman, and F. Keane, Jr., Penticton, R. F. Borrett, and G. A. Barrat, of Kelowna, George Heggie and D. Godfrey Isaacs, of Vernon, H. Birch, of Salmon Arm, and the two Kootenay representatives, with Mr. V. B. Robinson as Secretary, has no easy task ahead of it. It must of necessity work fast as undue delay would act as a deterrent to any plan of operation. And it must work with thoroughness and it will obviate any possibility of a complete upset at the first growers' meeting at which its final recommendations are considered.

Success to its deliberations!

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS EARLY THIS YEAR

Nomination On Monday And Poll, If Necessary, On Thursday

Elections in the cities and district municipalities of British Columbia not in possession of special charters, such as apply to Vancouver and Victoria, will be held this year on the earliest possible date, owing to the second Monday in January falling upon the 8th, when nominations take place, with the poll in cities on Thursday, the 11th, and in district municipalities on Saturday, the 13th.

In Kelowna, the tradition of preserving silence as to their intentions has sealed the lips of all the holders of municipal office with the exception of Mayor Gordon, who, to the universal regret of the ratepayers, has announced that he is to retire for a time at least from public life. No public statement has been made by any other members of the Council, but it is reported, upon good authority, that Ald. W. R. Trench will be a candidate for the mayoralty and that he will not be opposed by any of his colleagues.

The aldermen whose two-year term normally expires this year include Aldermen J. Galbraith and G. A. McKay, besides Ald. Trench. It is understood that the former are willing to offer themselves for another term, while the only name mentioned so far for the other seat on the Council is that of Mr. J. Harris, contractor, although other candidates may be in the offing.

Mr. Albert Gibb, elected Police Commissioner two years ago, is said to be considering another term of office.

The School Trustees whose two-year term expires are Mr. L. R. Stephens and Dr. J. W. N. Shepherd. To their colleagues both these gentlemen have expressed their intention of retiring, but they have made no public intimation to that effect. Both have rendered valuable service, and no doubt pressure will be brought to bear upon them to offer themselves again.

The annual municipal meeting is to be held on Friday evening, January 5th, in the auditorium of the Junior High School, commencing at 8 o'clock, when it is possible that more definite statements will be made by office holders or new candidates may declare themselves.

In the event of a contest and a poll being necessary, electors should bear in mind that voting will take place this year in the east store of the Royal Anne block, instead of the Council Chamber, on Thursday next, between the hours of 8.00 a.m. and 8.00 p.m.

ROTARIANS ENJOY SOCIAL EVENING

Wives And Families Guests For Dinner, Music And Dancing

The wives and families of Rotarians were guests of the Kelowna Rotary Club at an enjoyable dinner and social evening held in the Royal Anne Hotel on Tuesday evening. This pleasant social function took the place of the regular luncheon held weekly in the hotel.

Daughters of the Rotarians, including the Misses Craig, Hall and Brydon, with Miss M. Lloyd-Jones at the piano, entertained with vocal solos and duets and readings, and all joined in the singing of community songs. Cards and dancing were enjoyed until midnight, when the gathering dispersed.

Dance music and accompaniments for the community and Rotary songs were played by Mr. Leslie Elmore at the piano.

About eighty-five people sat down to dinner.

JAPAN DEALS BLOW TO BRITISH TEXTILES

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Japan dealt a severe blow to the British textile industry today with the announcement from Delhi that India has completed a three-year trade treaty with Tokyo whereby Japan will supply India with 400,000,000 yards of cotton goods and will take in exchange 1,500,000 bales of Indian raw cotton. The latter in the past has been purchased from the United States.

Sir Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Trade, recently warned the House of Commons that it might be necessary for the nations of Europe to act "unitedly" to meet the action of Japan in flooding world markets with cheap goods.

NECESSITY FOR ASSOCIATION OF GROWERS

Value Of Such Body As B.C.F.G.A. To Horticultural Industry Clearly Stated By Secretary

Taking for his subject "Growers and their Association," Mr. V. B. Robinson, Secretary of the B. C. Fruit Growers' Association, was one of the interesting speakers at the mass meeting of growers held in the I.O.O.F. Temple on Friday evening last.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. R. F. Borrett, chairman, who said that four months ago the growers were facing in all directions. Today they stood shoulder to shoulder and were all facing one way—they were going to have some form of control over their own fruit.

Ten Million Dollar Industry Should Be Organized

"Should there be a growers' organization?" asked Mr. Robinson at the outset. Emphatically yes, was his answer. Why shouldn't the fruit growers, involved in an industry yielding some $10,000,000 a year, be organized.

Should Be Run By Growers

"How should a growers' organization be run?" was his second query. By the growers themselves. It had always been the policy of the B.C.F.G.A. to have the organization run by the growers. During the past eighteen months the constitution had been revised to give the growers wider control in their own affairs. The present constitution put control in the hands of the growers. For instance, in the election of the five directors all would have the privilege to cast a ballot on the nominations made by the growers themselves.

Tariff Protection

"What work should be taken up by a growers' organization?" Obviously, the line of work that affected the growers. A live growers' organization should keep close watch on tariff matters. If conditions in the industry were bad

VICTORIA, Jan. 4.—The suggestion that the Tuxis Boys Parliament should be abolished was made today by J. Wise, District Commissioner of Boy Scouts for Victoria. Mr. Wise's protest arises from the fact that the cent session of the Tuxis boys as a militaristic organization.

At the Parliament Buildings rumours have been heard of protests against the Tuxis boys being permitted to use the assembly hall for unofficial proceedings, and it is stated that the subject will be aired in the Legislature. One influential member has been heard to question why other organizations should not be permitted to use the chamber for conventions if the Religious Education Council, which sponsors the Tuxis organization, is permitted to do so.

SCENES ON BATTLE FRONT TO BE EXHIBITED

Films Taken During Great War To Be Shown At Empress Theatre

The Kelowna Branch of the Canadian Legion has secured from the Department of National Defence a set of eighteen films taken on and near the battle front during the Great War. The most interesting of the collection will be exhibited at the Empress Theatre on Wednesday, January 24th, when there will be a matinee and two evening shows.

These historical films were mislaid after the armistice and were only recently recovered. They show actual scenes taken during action, with many interesting views of activities behind the lines.

Some of the films were shown recently at Vernon. Veterans who were privileged to view them were unanimous in their decision that the pictures are bona fide and have no staged thrills added for the benefit of the gullible.

The pictures will be shown under the joint auspices of the Canadian Legion and B. Squadron, B.C. Dragoons. The proceeds of the shows will be devoted to the relief of distress among ex-service men.

HOOP CHAMPIONS MEET DEFEAT AT KELOWNA

Victoria Blue Ribbons Downed By Local Senior "B" Team By Score Of 47 To 35

The New Year was ushered in at the Scout Hall in the afternoon of January 1st, when the local Senior "B" team entertained the Canadian champions, the Victoria Blue Ribbons. What a game it was! And what a result! It is hard for many people to realize as yet that the local team were victorious. Is it a dream or is it a fact? Well, it is a fact and even more than that, it is an accomplishment that many Senior "A" teams would like to be able to say that they did.

Yes, the Kelowna Senior "B" men did what many other teams could never do. Defeat the champions of the Dominion of Canada and by a margin of twelve points, the score at the end of the game standing: Kelowna, 47; Blue Ribbons, 35. At the half-time mark the locals were leading the champions 24 to 16.

The Blue Ribbons had their regular line-up along but they could not stop the locals from doing just what they intended to do. The visitors as a team are tall and have plenty of weight along with their height. They play a fine game and can shoot like nobody's business. Their passing and ease of taking their shots was one of the features of the game, and it was a treat to watch them. As for speed, the locals

It is hoped that these meetings will be largely attended.

BRITISH SOCIAL SERVICES COST ENORMOUS SUM

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Social services are now costing the United Kingdom an aggregate of $2,415,000,000 a year, or eight times the total in 1911. This huge sum is made up of state expenditures of $1,085,000,000, $610,000,000 expended by municipal and other social authorities and $820,000,000 advanced by the Treasury to unemployment funds, advances by employers and employed and miscellaneous services such as superannuation of teachers.

PRODUCERS AND JOBBERS SPLIT ON TARIFF

B. C. Vegetable Representative Reports On Toronto Conference And Tariff Board Hearing

The writer must ask your indulgence for not issuing before this moment a report as your representative attending the marketing conference held in Toronto November 27-28-29 and the Tariff Board hearing on fruits and vegetables of November 30th and December 1st. He returned to Vernon on December 8th.

Almost immediately he arranged a meeting with the President of the B.C. Tomato Growers' Association, the President of the Okanagan Onion Growers' Association and H. B. D. Lysons, at which time he reported in detail on both the Toronto and Ottawa meetings. Since that time until Saturday, the 10th inst., he has been engaged continuously in preparing a fruit and vegetable tariff memorandum and in securing the approval and endorsement of the material used in that memorandum by all the bodies interested, including the Executive of the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association and the members of the Okanagan Stabilization Board.

As this provincial memorandum had to be in Ottawa in time to be consolidated along with other provincial memoranda into a national brief by Mr. Paul Fisher, the Chairman of the Tariff Committee of the Canadian Horticultural Council, and this national brief placed in the hands of the Chairman of the Tariff Board by December 20th, the work and effort required left no time for the issuing of a report by your representative until the present moment.

After perusal of the Valley and Coast press reports of what took place at the Toronto marketing conference, there seems but little left in the way of information for your representative to convey to you.

Representation from British Columbia included the following: O. W. Hembling, member of the Executive Committee appointed at the Regina Marketing Conference; W. E. Haskins, representing the B.C.F.G.A. and the B. C. Coast Growers' Association; R. H. Macdonald, President of the Canadian Horticultural Council; B. C. Markets Commissioner Grant; F. A. Lewis, representing the B. C. Tomato Growers' Association, Okanagan Onion Growers' Association, Joe Rich lettuce growers and the Interior hothouse industry; A. H. Mercer, chairman of the Executive Committee appointed at Regina and representing the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association; Mr. Riddle, President of the Victoria Co-operative Hothouse Association and representing the Coast hothouse industry; fortunately Dean Clement, who was in the East on other business, was able to attend and address the marketing conference and took part in its activities generally.

When one stops to consider that the topic of marketing legislation is a comparatively new one to Eastern producers and that the great preponderance of those in attendance were from the Eastern Provinces, one cannot help but feel elated at the final result accomplished.

The press reports of the address of Hon. Mr. Weir, Federal Minister of Agriculture, carried a very true interpretation of Mr. Weir's comments. As your representative in attendance, however, I came away from the conference with the distinct impression that Mr. Weir is just as keen as the most ardent of us and will leave no stone unturned in his effort to bring about the consummation of the desires and wishes expressed in the following resolution which was endorsed unanimously and immediately subsequent to the Minister's address:

"WHEREAS, after many years' experience in the marketing of farm products under the various systems hitherto used, it has been amply demonstrated that anything short of complete producer control is inadequate for the establishment of orderly marketing on a permanent basis; and

"WHEREAS bringing about complete producer control by voluntary agreement seems incapable of accomplishment; and

"WHEREAS in such instances as producer control induced by legislative authority has been tried in Canada such enactments have been declared

BOY SCOUT COLUMN

1st Kelowna Troop

Troop First! Self Last!

Edited by S.M.

Orders for the week ending Thursday, January 11th, 1934:

Duties: Orderly patrol for the week, Beavers; next for duty, Wolves. Rallies: The first parade of this season will be on Tuesday, the 9th inst., at 7.15 p.m.

The date of our annual "Ban Feed" has been set for Friday, January 12th, and will be held in the Women's Institute Hall, if available. Next week's column will contain orders for this affair. It was decided at the Court of Honour that it should take the form of a Father and Son Banquet.

We have just received the first issue of "Canadian Boys and Model News," a new publication intended to fill the long-felt want of a national magazine for Canadian boys. It promises well and should be of great interest to the average boy between the ages of eight and eighteen.

From the "Scout Leader."—Formal announcement that Lord Baden-Powell will visit Kelowna next autumn, in September and October, was made by His Excellency Lord Bessborough at the semi-annual meeting of the Executive Committee of the Canadian General Council in Ottawa, November 22nd. The World Chief Scout, accompanied by Lady Baden-Powell, will make an East to West tour, Lord Baden-Powell reviewing the Scouts at certain points, (to be decided later) and Lady Baden-Powell meeting the Guides. From Vancouver they will sail for Australia, to participate in the Australian Jamboree planned in connection with the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the founding of Melbourne.

Scout Notes Of Interest

From 8 a.m. to a Saturday midday Boy Scouts of Mount Isa, Queensland, filled the executive positions from general manager down at the great silver-lead mine of the Mount Isa Mines Ltd.

A former Montreal Scoutmaster, Rev. Geoffrey Guiton, now on missionary duty in India, headed one of the troops of native Boy Scouts who rendered outstanding service during the great Hindu religious festival at Kurukshetra, in the northern Punjab.

That the Boy Scout training is as effective in the ancient land of Egypt as in Canada, is illustrated in the award by Lord Baden-Powell of the rare Bronze Cross to Patrol Leader Isa Ali, of the 1st Khartoum Troop, for a rescue from drowning in the River Nile. "At grave risk," The Nile was in flood, the current travelling at nearly twenty miles an hour, when an older boy swimmer took cramps and sank. Isa dived several times into the muddy current before locating the body, finally got it ashore, and after long continued artificial respiration brought about recovery.

A suggestion made by Baden-Powell during the Great War that the Boy Scouts had a great world future as a ultra vires of the Legislature enacting them; and

"WHEREAS a precedent for such legislation is to be found in the British Agricultural Marketing Act of 1931,

"BE IT RESOLVED that this body of producers' representatives of major agricultural activities of Canada request the Federal Minister of Agriculture to forthwith cause to be prepared a farm products marketing measure which, in so far as Federal legislative authority extends, will enable the producers of agricultural products in any part of Canada to take advantage of legislation embodying the principles of the British Marketing Act. And that such Federal legislation before enactment shall be submitted to the committee appointed by this conference to promote the enactment of such legislation."

The attendance comprised producers from every province in the Dominion and from, I believe, every type of agricultural production and distribution. It was most gratifying to hear several of those present state during the latter part of the three-day session that they had come to the conference prepared to oppose the movement but that, after listening to the discussion and realizing the true import of the resolution put forward, they were prepared to give it their unqualified support.

The following were appointed a committee with power to add to their number. This committee to urge the Government to implement the views expressed by the resolution: W. A. Landreth, representing the Canadian Poultry Pool; A. H. Mercer, representing the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association; Q. W. Hembling, representing the fruit growers of B.C.; P. Roblin, President of the Saskatchewan Live Stock Pool; R. H. Milliken, Counsel for the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool; E. H. Clark, Secretary, Ontario Whole Milk Producers' Association; W. A. Amos, President, United Farmers Co-operative Association of Ontario; J. F. Demarais, President, Quebec Farmers' Co-operative Association; J. W. Boulter, Manager, Prince Edward Island Potato Growers' Association; M. M. Robinson, Vice-President Ontario Vegetable Growers' Market Council.

Your representative was appointed as one of the committee who drew up the final resolution.

Tariff Protection

During the three-day period of the conference, the President and Secre-

peace agency brought the reply from a certain Scout Commissioner that any attempt at an international organization would be disastrous, and that the Scout movement was already "tottering to its fall." B.P.'s reply was "Let it totter and let us carry on." Since then four international Scout Jamborees have brought together in complete friendliness many thousands of boys from practically every corner of the globe, and today there are in the world two and a quarter millions of active Scouts and Scouters, and many millions more who have benefitted by the work and spirit of the Scout training.

QUADRUPLETS CELEBRATE TENTH BIRTHDAY

Here are the Mahoney quadruplets engaged in preliminary preparations for the Yuletide season. Christmas has a double significance for them, for it is also their birthday. They arrived in a little home in St. John, New Brunswick, almost on the heels of Santa Claus, on Christmas morning back in 1923. So far as the records go, they are only the second set of quadruplets born in North America continent to have attained the age of ten years. The others are the Keyes quadruplets, all girls, of Texas. The St. John kiddies are the children of Mr. and Mrs. William Mahoney—the father a Newfoundlander and a seaman—other a Nova Scotia—and they have run the gamut of all childhood's diseases and distempers and now have happily attained the age of ten years. They are: John Douglas, Edna Lou, and Edith May.

1ST RUTLAND TROOP

"Do A Good Turn Daily"

Orders for the week ending Jan. 6th:

The Troop will parade in the Community Hall on Friday, at 7.45 p.m. Sharp. Uniform to be worn.

No meeting was held last week, but a Court of Honour was held at the home of the Scoutmaster on Thursday evening. The attendance at this was not as good as it should have been, due in part to the necessity of changing the night from Friday to Thursday at the last minute. Owing to several of the older boys dropping out, it was decided to consolidate to four patrols, three of eight and one of seven. Troop Leader P. Ritchie was slated for position of Assistant Scoutmaster and Patrol Leader J. Mugford appointed as Troop Leader. P.L.s and Seconds are now as follows: Beavers, P.L. Geo. Campbell, Second Ralph Smith; Foxes, P.L. Everett Reser, Second Oliver Dendy; Kangaroos, P.L. Leo Graf, Second Darze Dendy; Seals, P.L. Wm. Hardie, Second E. Gibbons.

The Eagle patrol has been discontinued, for the time being at least, and the members transferred to the other patrols.

tary of the Canadian Horticultural Council took advantage of the attendance of so many of the Council's representatives, Directors and Executive, and a meeting was called to discuss the manner in which the tariff application of the Council should be dealt with and presented to the Tariff Board on the respective dates allotted, namely, November 30th and December 1st.

Your representative was named as one of the Council's tariff committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Paul Fisher to confer with the committee appointed by the Canadian Fruit and Vegetable Jobbers' Association with the objective in mind of presenting, through the Council, a united demand from producers and distributors to the Government's Tariff Board. Several conferences were held and agreement was finally reached on the following points:

1. That during the period when Canadian production was available, the jobber had no real reason for opposing the special protection asked for by the producer.

2. That during the period when Canadian production was not available and therefore the general tariff was in effect, the producer was not interested in special protection.

Cleaveage Between Producers and Jobbers

When, however, the question of the dates at which special protection would be afforded the fruit and vegetable industry was discussed, a wide divergence of opinion became more and more apparent. Your representative finally suggested that the opening and closing dates when special protective duties would be assessed be left to a non-partisan unprejudiced individual or department appointed by the Tariff Board or the Government. He pointed out the possibilities of what might occur if rigid dates were embodied in the Act. Abnormal maturity or abnormal over or under-production, climatic conditions, etc., would immediately work a hardship one way or another and conditions arise which would make the Act ridiculous in the extreme. Unfortunately the suggestion offered did not meet with the entire approval of both committees, although no definite argument was put up in opposition but, failing to reach an agreement, the Canadian Horticultural Council Tariff Committee decided to go ahead with the original application with the Jobber Committee opposing same.

On Wednesday, the evening of November 29th, the writer accompanied O. W. Hembling, W. E. Haskins, R. H. Macdonald, Markets Commissioner Grant and Mr. Riddle, of the Victoria Hothouse Association, to Ottawa and, along with producer representatives of the Canadian Horticultural Council from Ontario and Quebec, appeared before the Tariff Board on the morning of November 30th. L. E. Burrows, Secretary of the Council, presented the formal application of the Council and spoke briefly on same, explaining that this was the first time that the Council had not been able to reach a consolidated agreement as a Council and that the jobbers or distributors section of the Council, he understood, would be opposing the tariff application on the Council or certain points.

Previous to leaving Toronto, it became increasingly apparent to all the members of the Council's Tariff Committee that failing to reach an agreement with the Jobbers' Committee was bound to again bring the whole question of Mr. Burrows' dual secretaryship of the Canadian Horticultural Council and of the Jobbers' Association into the limelight and provoke and substantiate criticism as to the impracticability of same when the different interests represented on the Council refuse to agree.

Therefore after Mr. Burrows presented the tariff application of the Council, Mr. Paul Fisher, Chairman of the Council's Tariff Committee, carried on for the Canadian Horticultural Council. At the invitation of Mr. Fisher and Mr. Burrows, your representative sat with them and assisted. At different intervals as different commodities and angles of the tariff question were discussed, those who possessed special knowledge were called on by Mr. Fisher. O. W. Hembling, R. H. Macdonald, Markets Commissioner Grant, Mr. Riddle and W. E. Haskins spoke on behalf of the B. C. fruit and vegetable and hothouse industry at different times. Messrs. Royer, Clogg and Simpson acted on behalf of the Jobbers' Association. The Tariff Board was composed of Chairman Judge Sedgewick and Commissioners Campbell and Hebert.

Following the first day's hearing before the Tariff Board, we decided that it would be advisable to arrange a private meeting with the Chairman of the Tariff Board, at which time we hoped to explain to Judge Sedgewick's satisfaction our seeming lack of preparation and the lack of unity between ourselves and the jobbers. This plan was carried out and the Chairman was gracious enough to say that he understood the situation thoroughly and would, upon the opening of the public hearing (which occurred almost immediately), suggest that the group responsible for the application and those opposing it should have until the 20th of December to place in the Tariff Board's hands their respective briefs.

I might say at this time that Judge Sedgewick at this private hearing told those of us who waited upon him that in his opinion our presentation of the producers' argument and case left nothing to be desired. In fact, he said that in no instance during the present sitting of his Board had any argument been developed more logically or convincingly than had ours. Your representative shares the opinion, he believes, with all in attendance that to Mr. Paul Fisher goes one hundred per cent of the credit for the mastery and efficient manner in which our argument was presented.

The public hearing was re-opened almost immediately and the Chairman adjourned the hearing on fruits and vegetables to enable those interested to prepare briefs. Subsequently an informal gathering of the Tariff Committee of the Council and others took place and it was decided to have each Province submit a memorandum covering their own particular tariff problems and arguments for special duty. These provincial memorandums to be consolidated into a national brief by Mr. Fisher, assisted by Mr. Burrows and those of the Canadian Horticultural Council's Tariff Committee whose services could be secured.

Your representative was asked by Mr. Fisher to prepare our own provincial memorandum. Upon returning to Vernon on the 8th inst, he started to do so and then, on second thought decided that the preparation of this memorandum was really a matter for the B.C.F.G.A. Acting upon this, I tried to get into communication with W. E. Haskins, only to find that he had left for the Kootenays. Later he contacted Mr. Borrett, of the Stabilization Committee, and the Secretary of the B.C.F.G.A. and, at their suggestion, he completed the proposed memorandum, submitted same to them and received

The W. A. met at the home of Mrs. A. Reid on Tuesday. A very interesting paper was read by Mrs. C. E. Weeks, entitled "The Christ that is to come."

Topics such as this should appeal to all thoughtful, forward-looking people, and it is hoped that all who are interested will feel that there is a cordial welcome awaiting them and attend future meetings.

Mr. E. Bianco has gone to Alberta on a business trip.

A party of about fifty people was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. McEachern, to welcome them to our district. Mr. and Mrs. McEachern are former residents of the community, and the large gathering vouches for their popularity and shows how delighted we are to welcome them back again.

The evening extended in to the wee sma' hours and was spent in dancing and card playing, interspersed with musical and other items, and a most enjoyable time was had by everyone.

Don't forget the S. S. social on Friday evening. Come along and be a youngster once more and forget all about old man Depression.

The mild weather is exacting the more or less usual toll of colds, etc. The young folks are practically unanimous in their desire for a cold snap, so that they may enjoy some good skating.

We may boast that we can't be fooled twice the same way, but there are plenty of other ways.

We increase our wealth when we lessen our desires; every day of your life is a page in your history.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR WITH A TELEPHONE

"I don't think much of New Year's resolutions as a rule," said George Ransom, "but I've made one this year, and I've kept it already. I resolved to have a telephone installed. It was put in our house this morning."

"We realized last year what it means to be without a telephone. Gone was the protection for the family—no way to get quick word to a doctor in case of illness. Friends and business associates that used to be no farther away than the telephone, became miles distant."

"But it's a different story now. It's going to be a happy New Year—with a telephone."

FANTASTIC YET REAL AND HUMAN

Tears And Laughter Blend Wholesomely In "Lady For A Day"

Distinctly in a class by itself as motion picture entertainment and possessing a story so universally appealing that it is impossible to predict anything but outstanding success for it, "Lady for a Day," the Columbia production starring Warren Williams with May Robson, comes to the Empress Theatre on Friday and Saturday. The picture was awarded four stars by Liberty Magazine.

"Lady for a Day" is like a fantastic fairy tale, yet it is real and human. Its appealing humour and touching dramatic scenes make the laughs and tears blend wholesomely with an emotional agitating effect that is at once overpowering and heart-warming. A revelation to picture audiences will be the magnificent performance of May Robson as "Apple Annie." The complete cast, including such talented performers as Guy Kibbee, Ned Sparks, Glenda Farrell, Jean Parker, Walter Connolly, Ned Pendleton, Barry Norton and Hobart Bosworth, deserves the highest praise for inspired performances.

"Her First Mate"
A first-class comedy team, Slim Summerville and ZaSu Pitts, appear in "Her First Mate," a picture packed with laughs, which will be shown on Monday and Tuesday.

"The Bowery"
The Gay Nineties are coming back in "The Bowery"! Hilarious fun, robust romance and naughty nights of Frankie-and-Johnny times are promised with the arrival of Wallace Beery, George Raft, Jackie Cooper, Fay Wray, Pert Kelton and several other celebrities in "The Bowery," which will entertain on Wednesday and Thursday.

RELIEF ASSOCIATION EXPECTS MANY CALLS

While Christmas Is Over, Aid To Needy Must Be Continued

The Kelowna Volunteer Relief Association wishes to thank the citizens of Kelowna and district for the very generous measure of support they gave in donations of cash, clothing, hampers, produce, etc., and their help in making up the hampers and delivering them. Thanks are also due to the Girl Guides, Boy Scouts and the Kelowna Boys' Club for repairing and assembling the toys, and to the A. & B. Meat Market and staff for assistance given. In all, one hundred and seventy hampers, including toys where necessary, were delivered.

"Finally," said a member of the Association yesterday, "we would like to remind the public that there will be many calls on this organization during the coming months, consequently any further donations of either cash, clothing or produce will be very gratefully received."

Cash donations should be sent to Miss F. Heron, at Okanagan Loan & Investment Trust Company, Bernard Avenue, while clothing may be left in the booth opposite the Jones & Tempest store. Produce may be left with B. C. Fruit Shippers (Kelowna) Ltd., or donors may phone Mr. L. J. Kelly, telephone number 315-L2.
The following cash donations are acknowledged with thanks: Mr. Grote Stirling, M.P., $10; Mrs. Keller, $3; R. M. and K. M. Grogan, $1; Capt. C. R. Bull, $10; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Beale, $10; Mr. D. R. Butt, $50; Mrs. S. C. Barclay, $5; A. Friend, $10; W. F., $5; A.W.M., $5; Anonymous, $2, $2, $1, $1; Mr. J. Stallard, $5.

OKANAGAN TELEPHONE CO. ASSUMES OUTSIDE SERVICE

Long Distance Business Of B. C. Telephone Co. Taken Over

The Okanagan Telephone Company announces that it has arranged with the B. C. Telephone Company to handle all future long distance telephone service between the Okanagan Valley and outside points throughout the world.

Direct connections between the local offices of the Okanagan Telephone Company at Penticton, Vernon, Salmon Arm and Revelstoke will materially expedite long distance telephone business in general.

Improved interconnections have been made and additional high grade long distance equipment has been installed with a view to improving the voice carrying characteristics of the lines.

The lines being taken over were formerly part of the Dominion Government telegraph and telephone system, and while they were of great importance to the community during the early stages of development in the district, they are now no longer necessary, as their duties are more promptly and efficiently carried out by the Okanagan Telephone Company's system.

now, they would have been worse without adequate tariff protection, which should be continued. The growers should stand shoulder to shoulder to maintain this protection. At the last convention of the B.C.F.G.A., it was decided that tariffs which were now seasonal should be made permanent, as the growers felt that there might be a slip up and the tariffs not imposed on the proper dates. The growers were of the opinion that dates and values should be part of a definite schedule.

When representations were made recently to the Tariff Board at Ottawa, the Board told jobbers and producers to prepare a brief setting out their arguments in detail. Mr. Paul Fisher, of the Canadian Horticultural Council, asked Mr. Fred Lewis, of Associated Growers, to prepare a statement for the producers on the British Columbia situation. Mr. Lewis, who was allowed only a few days to do this, approached Mr. Robinson and pointed out that such a brief should represent the opinions of all the growers and not one group only. Mr. Robinson suggested that an expression of opinion be obtained from all locals of the B.C.F.G.A., but this was impossible owing to lack of time. So it was that Mr. Lewis had to prepare a brief for all the B. C. growers. Because the growers had not been together, the responsibility of preparing the brief had been placed on one group, the Associated Growers. The time had come when one strong body should be in a position to speak for all. The growers should be united to speak as one, especially on a matter as vital as tariffs.

Freight Rates
With regard to transportation, the shippers finally had to send Major M. V. McGuire to Ottawa to represent B. C. in the matter of freight rates. The growers put the shippers in a position where they had to send a representative, whereas the growers should have their own representative.

Touching on the matter of legislation, Mr. Robinson asked if the growers were going to have several groups go and ask for this. "If you are divided," he said, "how can you hope to get it? A united front is needed."

Need Of Advertising

Pointing out the necessity to advertise to increase consumption of apples, Mr. Robinson declared that any business or industry should advertise to exist. Hundreds of products were going off the map today because they were not being advertised consistently. He named a soap which had been popular years ago; the advertising had been dropped and the soap had practically disappeared from the market. "Force," once popular breakfast cereal, had made way for Kellogg's corn flakes. When gum was mentioned one invariably thought of Spearmint because of the wide advertising it had received.

Fruit advertising, said Mr. Robinson, was in two classes. The shippers should advertise their brands, as the Associated Growers and a few others had been doing, but the people should be educated to use more apples of all brands, and it remained with the growers themselves to undertake this educational advertising. There was a great field on the prairies which had not been touched. Here Mr. Robinson outlined the success of his efforts, when he was editor of Farm and Home, to encourage the use of apples on the prairie through a column of household recipes prepared by Miss Alice Stevens, of Vernon, for Farm and Home. Mr. Robinson extended this service to a number of prairie newspapers, all of which welcomed it.

Marketing
"Should a growers' organization deal with marketing?" The speaker answered this with another question: "Can you picture a growers' organization that doesn't deal with marketing? You have to discuss marketing. The constitution of the B.C.F.G.A. says that it shall not be construed to mean engaged in selling, but it does not mean that all discussion of marketing shall be barred."

"What should be the policy of a growers' organization?" was Mr. Robinson's final query. "The policy should be set by the growers themselves and must change as the will of the growers indicates what that policy shall be. It's up to you."

Mr. W. D. Walker rose to remark that Mr. Robinson had not emphasized that, up to 1926, the cost of all conferences at Ottawa and special emergencies was borne by the Associated Growers. All costs incurred had been paid for by the Associated, which, in a consideration of a united front and one growers' organization, should be emphasized.

THE SPELLING BEE

Spelling "bee darned," say most people.

The big business man leaves it to his stenographer, and his stenographer trusts in the Lord.

However, dusty archives record that once a stenographer looked up a word in a dictionary to see if Webster agreed with her.

All of which leads up to a consideration of the old spelling bee, which could be revived with profit hereabouts and thereabouts. It is held in some quarters that "fouche spelling is a-drift," but it offends the discerning eye.

The prettiest girl in the world has been known to lose much of her charm through her amazing spelling. If her grammar is bad, a man knows it when he talks with her—and everybody makes slips in conversation—but it is not until he starts to correspond with the sweet little thing that her capacity to spell is made apparent.

In New York City, private secretaries and school teachers are apparently the best spellers. At a recent spelling bee they downed a university professor, an editor and a foreign correspondent.

Miss Lou Helmuth, the teacher, held up nobly on "polyphony" and "plagiarism." (I almost spelled the latter just now without the first "i".)

Miss Etna Kelly, the private secretary, cleaned up on "necrophagous," which is anything but a pleasant word. (Incidentally, the newspaper that reported this spelled the word without the second "o".)

It all goes to show that the toughest are not the toughest when Dr. Henry Pratt Fairchild, Professor of Sociology at New York University, took "Nemesis," "millennium" and "desecate" in two jumps but fell down on "hosanna." (The news report almost caught me again; it spelled "millennium" with one "n".)

The best in New York's little red school house climbed over "mnemonics" and "opiohagism," pretty good stuff for winter nights. (Again the news report errs—at least, to the best of my knowledge backed by Webster's New International Dictionary. The report inserts a "g" in place of the second "p". Of course, this and the others mentioned may be typographical errors.)

And now I might add that most of these words would have downed me easily enough, although they are by no means the most difficult to spell.

USE DISCRETION

While visiting my doctor a few days after Christmas, he asked me to pass along this prescription for which he makes no charge: Says the doc:

"A little honey will keep a man young. But don't let the wife find out about her."

BIOGRAPHETTE

Don't be alarmed—the word is of my own invention. It means "a two-minute pen picture of a person in the public eye."

Walter (Grower Leader) Haskins was born not so long ago—but longer ago than you would imagine.

Wally lived in Penticton for some little time and liked it there so well he came to Kelowna.

He vows, however, that he will return to Penticton when his work in the Orchardist is done.

He is a lawyer by profession and has managed to make enough at it to support a good-sized ranch.

Wally is a little man with a big punch. He would rather fight than eat. He has demonstrated this time and again by fighting all day and far into the night for the growers with nothing more than a cup of coffee for ers in the B.C.F.G.A." was discussed by Mr. H. B. D. Lyons, who attacked statements made by Mr. R. M. Grogan in last week's issue of The Courier, stating that many assertions in his letter were wrong. Mr. Grogan stated that the B.C.F.G.A. embraced all agricultural products, whereas it included only fruit and vegetables. Mr. Grogan also said that "the tree fruit growers provide 80 per cent of the money, and half the time and money is taken up with vegetable problems." The fruit growers, declared Mr. Lyons, had not paid for any share of the work done for the vegetable growers, who paid their own share. While the fruit growers had sent a representative to Ottawa on B.C.F.G.A. funds, the vegetable and hothouse tomato growers paid all the expenses of Mr. Lewis, regardless of the fact that they had paid their subscription to the B.C.F.G.A.

Fruit and vegetable problems were much the same in many ways. Such matters as marketing, transportation, etc., could be taken up more effectively by one strong organization of fruit and vegetable growers.

MONTREAL, Jan. 4.—Britain today paid in cash Newfoundland's loans from the Royal Bank of Canada, the Canadian Bank of Commerce and the Bank of Montreal, under the agreement whereby a British government commission is to administer the affairs of the island. The payments totalled $6,000,000.

Reiterating in conclusion that the B.C.F.G.A. was not paying for the vegetable growers' problems out of fruit growers' money, Mr. Lyons said that one hundred per cent fruit growers had not as much strength as fruit and vegetable growers united solidly, consequently it was of advantage to both to stay in one organization.

Mr. Charles Gaddes returned this morning from Vancouver, where he spent the Christmas and New Year holidays.

Mr. J. F. Fletcher is a guest of the Mayfair Hotel. He returned recently from Vancouver, where he spent the Christmas holidays.

The doors of the Criterion Cafe, Pender St., were closed for business on Saturday afternoon, when the fixtures were removed.

Miss Emilee Hayman, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. L. A. Hayman, left on Monday for Vancouver, where she will enter the nurses' training school at St. Paul's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Henderson and baby son, of Vancouver, are spending the holiday season with Mrs. Henderson's parents, Ald. and Mrs. W. R. Trench, Pender St.

Mr. W. E. Haskins, chairman of the Growers' Stabilization Committee and President of the B.C.F.G.A., returned to the city yesterday from Salmon Arm, where he addressed a mass meeting of growers on Tuesday evening.

The engagement was announced last week of Elva, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Fleming, of Vancouver, to Dr. Milton P. Thorpe, of Kelowna. The wedding will take place on January 24th at Ryerson United Church, Vancouver.

Mr. William Inkster, of Okanagan Landing, is a guest of the Mayfair Hotel during the holiday season. Mr. Inkster is one of the real old timers of the valley engaged in the quarry business. In the early days, he was wont to travel between lake points in his canoe.

Domestic Wines & By-Products Limited have started off the new year most auspiciously. On New Year's day they received an order from the Saskatchewan government for a carload of wine. This is the second order from Saskatchewan and indicates that the Kelowna product is gaining popularity on the prairies.

At a meeting of the Kelowna Local of the B.C.F.G.A., held in the office of the Growers' Stabilization Committee yesterday afternoon, Messrs. R. F. Borrett and T. Wilkinson were appointed delegates to the convention to be held here this month. Balloting took place on the list of nominations for five Directors for the B.C.F.G.A.

Mr. J. Alex. Morrison, formerly of Kelowna and now resident in New York, paid a brief visit to town on Saturday to see his brothers, Messrs. R. F. and T. N. Morrison, while en route to Penitence to visit his son. He drove across the continent by car to Vancouver, where he left the vehicle, finding the roads good all the way until Oregon was reached.

Two dances and a midnight matinee at the Empress Theatre ushered in the new year in Kelowna. The dance at the Royal Anne Hotel, attended by a happy throng, was preceded by a cold turkey supper. Music was provided by Bill Guerard and his Canadians. A dance staged by the Commanders Orchestra in the I.O.O.F. Temple was well attended, and quite a crowd of merry-makers celebrated the advent of the new year at the frolic at the theatre.

The death occurred at Vancouver on December 20th of Mr. Ernest Joseph Nicholson, who passed away at the Vancouver General Hospital after a year's illness. He was born in the Kelowna district, then Okanagan Mission, in 1888 and spent most of his life here. He was a grandson of the late Mr. Luc Girouard, first postmaster of Vernon and a well-known old-timer of the Okanagan, and was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. D. Nicholson, of Kelowna, who predeceased him a number of years ago. He is survived by two half-sisters in Vancouver and by an aunt by adoption, Mrs. J. Saucier, of Kelowna. Interment was made in Vancouver.

marketing of fruit is the grower's business and must continue to be his business.

"We have demonstrated beyond any possibility of argument the value of a solidly united effort and that we as growers could so unite. The evil spirit of sectional jealousy, which has done much harm in the past, was killed for a time at least. All of these achievements, in which we are entitled to take pride, have demonstrated the necessity to be united one hundred per cent in the future. Your machine is functioning smoothly at the present time, but when there is criticism to offer let it be of the helpful kind, not carping.

The Future Bright With Promise

"What of the future? The future is bright with promise. The star of hope shines over the economic horizon. Local committees have brought out various plans which will be studied by the central committee beginning on January 4th, and there will be no undue delay in going through them and formulating a plan for submission to the growers. I have no right to discuss any plan since I am on the central committee, but I have the right to enunciate what I believe to be basic principles which must be incorporated in any plan.

Basic Principles Of New Control Plan

"Last year we arrived at the point where we claimed at least a partnership in the fruit industry. I now make this as basic. If we find we are in partnership with the packer and shipper, we claim to be the senior partner and as such are entitled to control. This is based on two principles: the value of our lands and our crop greatly exceeds the value of the packing houses and the packing materials; and, in the final analysis, we are in the fruit growing industry, not the packing industry. If a box of fruit sells at forty cents we should remember that what the purchaser desires and what he is, in fact, paying for, is the fruit and not the box. The first basic principle then is grower control.

Minimum Value Must Be Established For Fruit

"Last year we said that we would no longer sell our fruit at less than the cost of production. The second basic principle then must be that fruit must have a minimum value below which it shall not be sold. If apples are to be dumped, they must be dumped in the orchard before any expense is incurred. If we are producing a surplus, let's see if we can increase consumption.

"We must have one hundred per cent unity either by legislation or otherwise. Until we are certain that we are to get legislation we must have one hundred per cent grower control and grower unanimity. We must stand together on whatever plan is brought out. No voluntary plan can succeed with even ninety-five per cent of the growers.

Right Of Shippers To Take Part

"The fact that the shippers have a very extensive interest in the fruit industry must not be overlooked but must be provided for. We have no reason to say that the shippers should go out of business. We are working together in a fruit industry, and they have a right to take part in the plan we produce.

"The plan should be one that will meet with the least opposition from all branches of the industry. For that reason, consideration should be given to all opinions of those concerned in its operation. It is as foolish for the growers to assume that no one has any right to a voice in the method of selling as it has been in the past to assume that the growers should not have a voice.

"The plan should be based on the experience of the past rather than on rash and perhaps unfounded hopes of the future. We should not engage in some visionary scheme. When the plan has been born let us not be so blind to our own interests as to refuse to accept it because it is contrary to our own view, but all go with the majority."

Independent Growers Not Formulating Plan

There had been a rumour, said Mr. Haskins at this point, that the Independent Growers Association were meeting this month to form a marketing plan. Mr. Haskins had the assurance of Mr. F. R. E. DeHart, Secretary, that it was not the intention of the I.G.A. to bring forward a marketing plan. There were also rumours that another organization of independent growers was to set up a plan, but the grower leader did not think that all the growers united in one organization would attempt to set up new machinery.

Cash Buying vs. Central Selling

Two plans were already being considered by the people of the valley—one with the cash buying principle and the other a central selling scheme. The Central Committee would consider both, but Mr. Haskins could not predict what the outcome would be. Whatever plan was brought forward by the committee would be submitted to the growers for their approval.

"If any large majority expresses the desire to have any one plan put into operation, for God's sake let's all get behind it one hundred per cent," he urged. "I will give it my heartiest support and try to induce the fruit growers to accept it. Because there are two opposing plans already being discussed, whatever scheme adopted is bound to be a disappointment to some."

Shipper Unanimity In Hands Of Growers

"We must have one hundred per cent unanimity. There must be not only one hundred per cent of the growers but of the shippers as well. One shipper outside would be a stumbling block. How are we going to get this unanimity? It is as simple as ABC so far as the shipper is concerned. It is absolutely in the hands of the growers; simply refuse to enter into any contract with a shipper who does not conform to the plan. It is up to you not to deliver fruit to any shipper who will not co-operate. Don't sign any contract with a shipper until the question of how fruit is to be marketed is definitely settled upon. If a shipper has control of a grower through past contracts, it will avail him nothing unless other growers are prepared to deal with him.

Self Interest Strongest Motive

"As to one hundred per cent unity among the growers—there's the rub. There are always a few unable to co-operate with other people. Grower co-operation involves a unique principle contrary to all precepts of morality and Christianity—the exercise of the utmost selfishness and self-interest. This is cardinal. Individual selfishness must transcend any other feeling of the individual grower. Some of these feelings are individual and sectional jealousy, hate, revenge, spite, but all must give way to selfishness. In the past you have been going around the valley saying that you must work for the common good. A lot of people don't want to. So I say, look after yourself. You found this year that the way to get the most was to be united one hundred per cent. There is only one way to satisfy your selfish desires in 1934—be with us one hundred per cent in the scheme we adopt. I am not asking you to get behind me and others but to get behind yourself. Let your own self-interest predominate. I am selfish and I want you to be the same.

Personal Liberty Bogey

"But if this self-interest is not a strong enough motive to induce all growers to get together, how can it be brought about? Last year we used force and made them come in. When a plan has been adopted by any large majority then that majority has a right to have its will enforced. People always comment on their personal liberty. There is no such thing as personal liberty. We can't do what we want to do. You have no liberty to turn a car in the middle of a block, you can't open your store on Thursday afternoons whether you employ clerks or not, you can't do as you please with your own children—you can't let them go hungry or do without clothing, for the law would step in and make you provide; you can't beat your own wife as man could at one time, you haven't even the right to cut your own throat! A policeman would stop you if he saw you, so you haven't the liberty to die.

"It is clearly to be seen that you have no right to market as you see fit regardless of how it affects others. If you have ninety-five per cent in a control plan, that ninety-five per cent has a right to see to it that the five per cent does not market fruit in a way detrimental to the interests of the big majority. So, if next spring some are not selfish enough to come in, they should be forced to come in. We have a potent weapon now in public opinion. In the past we have been too soft-hearted and good-natured; if a man insists on having his own way to the detriment of his neighbour and himself, he should be made to do differently.

Boycott Those Who Will Not Co-operate

"Any one who will not co-operate in 1934 should be boycotted by every trade and profession interested in seeing that the growers get the maximum for their fruit. He who refuses to join us should be treated as a common enemy. Let no merchant provide him with food or credit, let no banker lend him money, let no man call him friend. Public opinion is our weapon. I would like to see a badge worn by all in sympathy with the new control plan—and God help anybody who doesn't wear it!" (Applause.)

Mr. Haskins concluded by wishing all a happy and prosperous new year. "If you don't have one," he said, "it will be nobody's fault but your own." Mr. Haskins addressed the meeting twice. On his first appearance he reviewed his recent trip to the Kootenay, an account of which was published in The Courier two weeks ago, and also reported on his trip to Toronto.

The Kootenay Situation

In his remarks on the situation in the Kootenay, he explained why he had invited three representatives from that area instead of one. It was important to the valley that the three widely separated areas, Nelson, Creston and Grand Forks, should have separate representation.

It was very gratifying to find at Grand Forks that the Donkohors, Lawson Bros. and Mr. J. Coleman, who had opposed the Produce Marketing Act strenuously, were willing to co-operate.

Mr. Haskins found a certain bitterness towards the Okanagan in the Kootenay, where the feeling was that they had not been given a square deal. He told them that, since they were so far away, it was natural that the Ok-

A School of Life will be held in the Parlour of the United Church Hall on the evenings of Thursday and Friday, January 11th and 12th. These two meetings are open to all Groupers and surrendered people, admittance being by invitation. For information and invitations apply to your Group leader or the secretary (phone 336K). Short talks will be given by chosen speakers on how to live a surrendered life, and various problems will be brought up and dealt with.

Many people who became interested in the group movement when the Coast team was here have requested a public meeting. Such a meeting is to be held, probably the week following the School of Life. This meeting will take the form of a witness meeting with a team of local people, and will be open to the public.

A business girls group is being formed this week. Any girl who wishes to join this group should phone 444-R3 for information.

Keen interest is being shown by Groupers in Kelowna as already the movement is spreading, although no public meetings have been held since the November house party.

EVENING SERMON SUBJECTS AT FIRST UNITED CHURCH

Beginning on Sunday evening, January 7th, at the First United Church, the Rev. W. W. McPherson will give four special addresses on the theme, "The Old and Tried Road to Home Sweet Home." In general they will deal with the social beginnings and factors that go to build up a happy home life. There will be appropriate music for each talk.

The series is as follows: January 7th, "The Golden hours of Youth." Jan. 14th, "Love's tangled ways—choosing my life partner." Jan. 21st, "Laying the foundation of a happy home." Jan. 28th, "The expectant new things," the divine right of our children, based upon "The Cotter's Saturday night" by Burns.

OKANAGAN PIONEER MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

Old friends in the Kelowna district will learn with much regret that Mr. Donald Graham, well-known Okanagan pioneer, resident in the Armstrong district for over fifty years until a year or two ago when he went to Edmonton to live with his daughter, suffered a fracture of the hip bone from a fall during Christmas week. According to the Armstrong Advertiser, Mr. Graham was doing some Christmas mailing at the Edmonton post office when a small boy, hurrying through the revolving doors, bumped into him and he fell. As he normally enjoys good health, it is hoped that the sufferer will make a complete recovery from his injury. Mr. Graham, who is now over eighty years of age, was M.L.A. from 1894 to 1898 for East Yale, which then included the Okanagan Valley and the Kettle River country to Christina Lake.

MARRIAGE

Moore—MacAuley

A quiet wedding took place on Saturday evening, December 30th, at the United Church manse, on Glenn Avenue, when Miss Margaret MacAuley, of Winnipeg, was united in marriage to Mr. Crawford W. Moore, of Penitence and formerly of Winnipeg. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. W. McPherson.

The young couple will make their home in Penitence.

Misses Mary Little and Elsie McConnell returned from the Coast today by Canadian National. The train was over three hours late.

ROYAL BANK OF CANADA IN STRONG LIQUID POSITION

Nearly Half Total Assets Are Quick—
Over $18,000,000 Increase In Deposits

A uniformly strong and particularly satisfactory statement is being forwarded to the shareholders of The Royal Bank of Canada.

The report, which covers the fiscal year to 30th November, shows that with the lessened demand for banking accommodation due to the trade conditions that prevailed, the bank has added materially to its strong liquid position. Included among these liquid assets are very substantial holdings of cash.

The less active conditions, as well as the lower rate of interest on high grade investments, has naturally had its effect on earnings. The profits for the year, however, were sufficient to provide the dividends, and after the usual appropriations permitted of a substantial addition over the year to Profit and Loss account.

A very gratifying feature of the statement is a notable increase of over $18,000,000 in Canadian savings and demand deposits. Such a development would likely be due to a desire of Canadians to keep strong in cash by adding steadily to their savings, while the increase in demand deposits, which represent the working balances of businesses and farming customers, evidently indicates a marked stimulation in the turnover of a great many lines of businesses.

The unsettled state from which business is now emerging has emphasized the usefulness of strong inner reserves. The Directors' recognition of this fact is evidenced by a transfer of $15,000,000 from Reserve Fund to reimburse the inner reserves of the bank, and to provide reserves which they consider adequate for future contingencies. This action is in line with adjustments which have been made by many of the leading and most powerful banks in all parts of the world, and will be regarded as a prudent and constructive move.

The published Reserve Fund is maintained at the substantial figure of $20,000,000 and $1,383,604 is carried forward to the credit of Profit and Loss Account.

Total assets shown by the statement for the fiscal year which ended November 30th last are $729,260,476. Liquid Assets of $362,471,645 aggregate 55.76 per cent of liabilities to the public. Cash and Bank Balances total $157,699,215, equal to 24.26 per cent of Public Liabilities.

The total of $106,850,615 invested in Dominion and Provincial Government securities represents an increase of $17,401,771 compared with the previous year. A small decrease is shown in Canadian municipal securities and British Foreign and Colonial public securities.

While certain lines of business are less active than a year ago, other industries have experienced a keen demand for their products in recent months, with the result that inventories have been brought down to abnormally low figures. Both these factors have contributed to reduce the need for banking accommodation, and this is reflected in a decrease of $44,442,954 in loans and discounts. Commercial loans now stand at $316,119,392 against $360,562,286. Call Loans in Canada and abroad were reduced by $3,598,571 during the twelve months' period.

Shareholders will be interested in seeing that, despite the lower level of interest rates, which particularly affected the return from liquid assets maintained at reserve centres, profits for the year were $3,901,649. This amount fully covered dividend requirements of $2,975,000; contribution to Officers' Pension Fund, $200,000; appropriation for Bank premises, $200,000; reserve for Dominion Government taxes, $310,000, and left $216,650 to be added to Profit and Loss Account, making a total of $1,383,604 to be carried forward to the next fiscal year.

PROVED HIS POINT

"Patience and perseverance will accomplish all things," said a passenger in a railway compartment.

"Nonsense, sir!" said a fellow-passenger. "Will patience and perseverance enable you to carry water in a sieve?"

"Certainly!"
"I would like to know how!"
"Simply by waiting patiently for the water to freeze."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

A COMPLAINT AS TO CITY STREETS

Richter Street, N.,
Dec. 30th, 1933.
The Editor,
Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir,
As a somewhat recent arrival in this fair city, might I beg the privilege of some space in your valued paper to draw the attention of the powers that be to the disgraceful condition of the city streets.

After the first fall of snow the sidewalks and streets were ploughed clear, but later snow falls have been left very much to themselves as far as the City officials are concerned.

On the Friday before Christmas, the down town section of the city was a veritable lake. A scraper seems to have been drawn over the roads a few times, and the snow piled up towards the sides of the street, behind where the autos park against the kerb, instead of being piled out of the way in the centre of the road, where horse sense would suggest, and in order to reach the sidewalk a person had to climb over these snow barricades and through several inches of slush and water (why were not the storm sewers put to use?) and passing cars provided a beautiful cascade of mud.

Three men were making a partial attempt to load these piles of frozen snow on to a City dump truck, but traffic conditions made it very slow work, as well as a nuisance.

It seems as if some work could have been provided for the scores of unemployed during the Christmas season. Any money so paid would have been immediately spent with the merchants of the city, who need all the business they can get, instead of which obstacles were put in the way of Christmas shopping.

Similar conditions still existed last Friday, December 28th.

The sidewalks of the main streets, Pender Street and Bernard Avenue, were impassable for several days after each fall of snow; pedestrians had to walk on the roads, which were dangerous, even for automobiles. Outside the United Church, two piles of snow from the roof made miniature Alps, over which one had to climb, both this, and I understand, in previous years.

I think, Sir, that some steps should be taken in the matter of public safety, and for the convenience of your citizens, for which they are very well taxed, to see that the City Manager is on the job, earning his pay and using the tools bought with their money, for this very purpose.

A few years ago I resided in Vernon, when some of the city merchants equipped their trucks with snow ploughs and sent them to clear the main country roads so that people could be induced to come in and trade for the Christmas season. The city officials did their part in town.

In Kelowna, it seems as if the "boss of the town" is asleep at the switch, and I am surprised that no protest has come from the City Council, Board of Trade or other responsible bodies.

My indignation at conditions has inspired this outburst, and I hope that the insertion of same will reach the proper quarters, which nothing else seems to do.

Thanking you in anticipation of your co-operation for the benefit of all,

Yours very faithfully,

DAVE L. DENNISON.

"PEACE ON EARTH, GOODWILL TO MEN"

Nanaimo, B. C., Dec. 30, 1933.
To the Editor,
Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir,
This is a most opportune time to steady our nerves amid all the tumult of contention on the apple selling question, and get back to a bit of sane reasoning. Public meetings, by reason of conflicting viewpoints, do not beget sane reasoning—they are not the very opposite to the "still waters" of deep thought, when in the tranquillity of our minds we can measure and weigh with accuracy? Let us see if our selling troubles (hard as they are to bear) are not but true finger posts pointing us to the right way. You know these troubles are not confined to B. C. or just to apples, milk, eggs or wheat, but are world-wide.

It is the spirit of man—our minds, that are turned into whirlpools of unrest, because of the unfairness of it all. If we only would in the quiet times, when our minds are at rest, truly get down to find out what is best in life, we shall begin to discern that it is qualities that money cannot buy. Then why let all that is best in life be driven from our midst with this money racket? You can deck a corpse with fine raiment or all that money can buy; but it is still a lifeless thing. Let us get

PRINCESS ILEANA A MOTHER

Princess Ileana, daughter of Marie, Queen-Dowager of Romania, and wife of Archduke Anton of Hapsburg, is now the mother of a little girl, born last month at Moedling, Austria. The baby will be christened Marie Ileana. Princess Ileana visited America with her mother several years ago.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the files of "The Kelowna Courier"

Thursday, January 1, 1913

Owing to the date of publication coinciding with New Year's Day, this issue of The Courier consisted only of four pages.

Customs returns for the year ending December 31, 1913, for the outport of Kelowna, showed a large increase in the volume of business transacted as compared with the previous year, the figures being as follows: Duty collected: 1912, $25,565.36; 1913, $36,907.96; increase, $11,342.60. Value of goods entered: 1912, $121,839.00; 1913, $167,269.09; increase, $45,440.00. Value of free goods entered: 1912, $23,708.00; 1913, $46,629.00; increase, $22,921.00. Value of dutiable goods entered: 1912, $98,131.00; 1913, $120,640.00; increase, $22,509.00.

If it had not been for the Great War and the financial difficulties that ensued thereafter, Kelowna would have had an armory for the accommodation of its militia units. The City Council having consented to provide a free site, the Kelowna Conservative Association wired to Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes, then Minister of Militia, urging that a sum be placed in the estimates to provide for construction of a building of a size adequate for the requirements of the local squadron of horse and company of infantry. In reply, the doughty Sam stated: "The name of your town is on the list for a drill hall, and we hoped to erect one this year. However, we will do our best to have one completed there next year at the latest, as I fully realize the requirements of a drill hall at this point." The outbreak of war, however, shelved the proposal indefinitely.

down by the "still waters" that we may thresh this matter out. We have all become a prey to the wolves whose plunder is money (that medium of exchange wherewith we buy life's necessities). It is here where the weakness of the system lies that leaves us so open to attack. We band ourselves together in bodies (co-operatives, trade unions, and so on) as fighting forces. As nations we equip ourselves with armies and navies all for the protection of money interests.

Did you ever contrast the difference—your daily round of work in the orchard or on the farm as producers—with the massed wealth as seen in the bank buildings, city offices, etc., of our big cities, and let the thought sink deep of who paid for it all? The gentlemen that run such establishments in all their lavish expenditure produce nothing but are a necessary evil of our system.

Have we got to get down to be a famine-stricken country (we cannot be filled looking through store windows) before we are willing to listen to reason? The earth is producing an abundance and we need lack nothing, but even the wild animals in their untamed cruel nature do not use more cunning or display more greed than we so-called Christians do in this scramble for the spoil. God has supplied the raw materials in abundance, those of us who are honest enough supply the labour, but just as long as we have merchandising for profit just so long will you have a continuation of this world's troubles multiplying as the years go by, for "where the carcass is there will the eagles be gathered together." Peace we could have and the spirit of gladness—the fragment of which we feel, because of obedience to Divine law in making others glad at this season could be ours throughout the year but not under a system wherein our every thought and act is gain to ourselves.

Common—that word which few understand the beauty of its meaning, its significance in our language is like unto Him who was despised and rejected of men, and like unto Him would be as regards things earthly the Saviour of Mankind for it means alike to all—a common task—a common reward. In this and this alone lies the solution of trouble—national and individual. Is it not a son's duty to carry on the father's unfinished work—the Creation was not finished that we might carry on "Our Father's" work. In our labour is seen the measure of our mind—our hands perform according to our mind and so did the Creator's when He fashioned this earth, not for His good but for ours and His. This is what our labour must become "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth as it is in Heaven." Then shall we truly have "peace on earth," goodwill to men."

GUILD OF HEALTH

"If we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin." 1. John 1-5.
 God desires to have us living continually in the light of His countenance. Our business, our home, our circumstances, our temper, of which we complain as hindering, are they stronger than God? If we ask God's Holy Spirit to shine in and upon us, we shall see and prove that He is true to His promise and that we as believers may walk all the day and every day in the light of His love. When we fully realize that we have at our command unlimited spiritual forces, we do not even think of defeat but press forward, confident that through Christ we can do all things. In St. John 14-16, we read: "I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of Truth." He dwelleth with you, and shall be in you." And in the 21st verse it says that "to those who love Him and keep His commandments, He will manifest Himself." What greater encouragement could we hope for?

DYNAMITE FOUND IN FIREWOOD

When splitting wood on his farm near Brooklin, Ont., Steve Bokola (1), discovered a cleverly hollowed piece of firewood filled with dynamite and percussion caps. (2) The chunk of wood had been split in two, hollowed out then joined together so that the cracks would not be noticed. It is believed there was enough dynamite to wreck the house. As the wood came from Bokola's own wood lot, it is thought some one with a grudge placed it there. Police are investigating.

OKANAGAN MISSION

A large party of their friends and neighbours gathered on Wednesday, Dec. 27th, at the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dunlop, to make acquaintance with the new skating rink which has recently been made there. Hot coffee and refreshments were served, and the crowd enjoyed a merry time on the ice.

On Thursday, December 28th, the fancy dress dance organized by the Women's Institute took place in the Bellevue Dance Hall. There were about twenty-two children in fancy costumes at the children's party, which took place from 7 to 9 o'clock. The prizes for this were given to the two finest masqueraders, Betty Davis as a fairy, and Micky Norris in an Elizabethan costume. Mr. Hall, in a jester's parti-coloured suit of scarlet and green, worked hard to keep things going vigorously, and Mrs. Johns as Santa Claus was a popular figure with the children.

About sixty people—not all in fancy dress—attended the dance, which took place from 9 o'clock until 1:30. There were many beautiful and clever costumes, and the judges found their task a difficult one. The prizes were awarded to Barbara Collett, as a Chinaman, Dick Hall, as a Nineteenth Century Gentleman, Bill Ashberry, as "The Bowery Girl," and Jack Bell, as Charlie Chaplin. Mr. Johnstone's orchestra from Kelowna provided the music and Mrs. C. Dunlop and Mrs. Sealy kindly undertook the judging.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Painter and their son Michael spent the New Year week-end with Mrs. Painter's relatives at Trepanier.

Mrs. Haverfield leaves on Friday, Jan. 5th, on a short visit to relatives in the Old Country. She expects to return to the Mission in time for Easter.

WINFIELD

The annual New Year's dance was held in the Winfield Community Hall on Friday night of last week, with a fair attendance. All report a splendid evening. The music was furnished by local talent.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Gray, of Okanagan Centre, spent New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Clark, having done so consistently for twenty-one years. Some record! Who can beat it?

Miss Betty Tree, of Kelowna, was out for the dance and spent the week-end and New Year's Day the guest of the family of Ralph Berry.

Mr. R. B. White returned home from Lavington on Tuesday of last week, having to go to work in the packing house on Wednesday. Mrs. White and daughters returned home on Friday.

Martin and Fred Drasching returned last week from having spent Christmas with friends at Enderby.

The best a man ever did should not be his standard for the rest of his life.

Miss Zoe Browne Clayton, who is spending her Christmas vacation with her parents, will return to the U.B.C. on Saturday.

On Sunday next, January 6th, the Sunday School will be re-opened in St. Andrew's Church at 10 o'clock. All children will be welcomed. There will be a Bible Study Class for older children also, at the same hour and place.

The annual meeting of the Women's Institute will be held in the Bellevue Hotel (by kind invitation of Mrs. Faris) on Tuesday, Jan. 8th, at 3 o'clock. It is hoped that all members will try to attend this important meeting.

TALENTED AMATEUR ACTORS

Following previous dramatic successes, Viscount Duncannon (2), son of the Governor-General, again acquitted himself with distinction as Romeo in a presentation of "Romeo and Juliet," at the Little Theatre, Ottawa, December 26th and 27th, by the Ottawa Dramatic League. The part of Juliet was played by Miss Julia MacBrien (1), daughter of the Commissioner of Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and the remainder of the cast included guest players from the Montreal Repertory Theatre, Hart House, Toronto, and the Queen's University Faculty Players, Kingston. Rupert Harvey, of London, England, adjudicator of last year's Dominion Drama Festival, directed the production, the stage settings of which were executed by Hon. Mrs. Gordon Ives from a design by the Earl of Bessborough. Photo by Karsh, Ottawa.

the following wired reply on the morning of December 15th:

"Resolution passed by Association endorsed one principle of having date and values fixed as part of schedule, two, protection against storage stocks held at time our products become available, three, duty on Jap oranges for fair deal to both consumer and producer (stop) not in position at present to endorse your suggestion regarding date fixing committee (stop) suggest you attach this wire to your brief."

He also submitted his memorandum, which was in the form of a letter to Mr. Paul Fisher, to each individual member of the Okanagan Stabilization Committee and received their individual approval, a proceeding which I believe will be regularized at the Stabilization Board's meeting to be held on the 19th inst.

The memorandum was finally mailed to Ottawa on the 15th inst. and a wire sent to the Secretary of the Canadian Horticultural Council informing him of the date same was mailed here. Mr. Fisher has wired that he believes he will be able to get the date extended for the presentation of the consolidated national brief.

Lack of time prevented your representative from securing endorsement from the B. C. Coast Growers Association, the Southern Okanagan Vegetable Association, the Joe Rich Lettuce Growers Association and probably many other organizations which should undoubtedly have been consulted. In the circumstances, however, he has done all that he believes was possible and submits this, his report.
 His expenses were paid in their entirety by the B. C. Tomato Growers' Association, the Okanagan Onion Growers' Co-operative Association, the Joe Rich Lettuce Growers' Association and an individual contribution of $25.00 from H. B. D. Lyons, representing the hothouse industry of the Interior of British Columbia.

An accounting will be rendered by him to the above Association and to Mr. Lyons almost immediately.

Yours faithfully,

F. A. LEWIS,
 B. C. Vegetable Representative,
 Canadian Horticultural Council.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF UNITED CHURCH

(By B.S.B.)

The regular young people's meeting was held in the Church parlour on New Year's Eve, with a good holiday attendance. Mr. McPherson conducted the service. Mr. George Balfour gave an interesting talk explaining how he had become a Christian many years ago. He thought that revival movements like the Oxford Group that swept the country every few years were a good thing, as they sometimes influenced people with whom the church did not come in contact. Young people especially very often were changed by an energetic group of revivalists. Mr. Balfour said he admired the famed Aimee Semple McPherson for her courage. While in a Canadian city on tour at one time, she had visited dance halls on a Saturday night and had turned the gatherings into religious meetings.

After Mr. Balfour's talk, light refreshments were served by some of the hard-working girls to celebrate the New Year.

The Young People meet in the Church parlour every Sunday evening at 8:45 p.m. All young people are welcome.

PRINCIPALS IN INTERESTING TORONTO WEDDING

An interesting wedding in Toronto was that of Miss Lorna Ogden Hall, daughter of Mr. D. H. Hall, M.P.P., of Prince Albert, Sask., to Mr. Guy Colman Carr-Harris, son of Mrs. Carr-Harris and the late Prof. Robert Carr-Harris. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Senator Thomas Osborne Davis and also the late Robert Hanley Hall, Commissioner of the Hudson's Bay Co. in Canada.

MANY MINERS FACE DEATH IN CZECHO-SLOVAKIA

DUCROV, Czecho-Slovakia, Jan. 4.—Fire and poisonous gas swept a dual threat of almost certain death today towards a hundred and twenty men trapped by a blast in the "Nelson 111" coal mine. Rescue workers were beaten back by the flames, and it is feared that all the miners are doomed. The terrific explosion which entombed the men occurred late yesterday and early today fire broke out.

BADMINTON

Local Tournament Begins Next Tuesday

Entries close on Sunday for the Kelowna Badminton Club tournament, which commences on Tuesday next. All members of the club are asked to put up their names on the entry lists at the club, whether or not they have arranged for partners. It is hoped to have the tournament completed in three evening sessions, beginning at 7.30, in order that the usual afternoon sessions of play will not be interfered with.

Central B.C. Championships Here,
Feb. 20-22

The British Columbia Central Championships will be played at the Kelowna Badminton Hall on February 20th, 21st and 22nd. This is one of the outstanding open tournaments held in the province, and every effort will be made to ensure that it will be as great a success this year as in the past.

It is anticipated that the Interior of British Columbia Championships will be played at Vernon in the following week, and that the Southern Interior tournament will be played at Penticton immediately after the Vernon tournament.

anigan might forget their interests to some extent. He felt that they would demand control of the marketing of their own fruit. Mr. Haskins told them that the whole Interior must unite to control the industry, and they expressed willingness to join in the movement for grower control.

The Toronto Conference

Reporting on his trip to Toronto, an account of which was published upon his return, Mr. Haskins explained the part he played in drafting the final resolution asking for legislation. The first draft was to the effect that the legislation asked for would become law when it had the approval of producers' organizations. Mr. Haskins felt that it should have the approval of the producers themselves, consequently this change was made.

Mr. Haskins also objected to the fact that the B.C. fruit growers were represented on the committee by a man not elected by the growers themselves. Mr. O. W. Hembling. He had no personal objection to Mr. Hembling, but he felt that the growers should appoint their own representative. Mr. Hembling was also an officer of the Associated Growers and should not be representing the growers as a whole without their sanction. When the two committees of five were changed to one committee of ten, Mr. Hembling was made a member of the new committee by the consent of all the B. C. representatives at Toronto, and everybody was satisfied.

Outlook Not Bright For Early Legislation

The likelihood of getting marketing legislation at the next session of Parliament was not very strong, in Mr. Haskins' opinion. The Minister of Agriculture never hinted that it would go through—rather, he hinted that it wouldn't. However, Mr. Amos, chairman of the committee of ten, was an able man, and would do all in his power to get it. As Hon. Mr. Weir had referred to "almost insurmountable difficulties" in the way, Mr. Amos got up and said the time had come when the producers would no longer recognize insurmountable difficulties. "If there are difficulties in the way," he said, "they are difficulties we propose to surmount. We want legislation and we are going after it to get it."

If there was any hope of getting it at the next session, Mr. Haskins concluded, that committee would get it.

DUKE OF WESTMINSTER SUES NIECE FOR LIBEL

LONDON, Jan. 4.—The Duke of Westminster gave London society something to talk about today by bringing a suit for alleged libel against his niece, Lady Sibbell Lygon. The Duke complains of an article written by Lady Sibbell in a recent issue of the Oxford and Cambridge Magazine, to which she is a contributor. W. G. A. Waite, editor of the magazine, also was named as a defendant as well as the proprietor of the publication. Lady Sibbell, who is the second daughter of the Earl of Beauchamp, is a regular contributor to various newspapers and magazines.

HUGE THEFT ALLEGED IN FRENCH BANK COLLAPSE

PARIS, Jan. 4.—France was shaken today by charges that $10,000,000 to $20,000,000 has been stolen in the collapse of the Credit-Municipal Bank of Bayonne, which was the city's pawnshop, and the disappearance of its mysterious founder, Serge Stavisky.

WESTBANK

On Friday night the Commanders Orchestra held a most successful dance in the Community Hall. Between eighty and ninety dancers were present and enjoyed the excellent dance music.

Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson and family, of Kelowna, spent the New Year holiday with Mr. and Mrs. S. K. MacKay.

Miss Margaret Anne Pritchard (Doodie), who was operated on for appendicitis in the Kelowna Hospital last week, is starting to make good progress towards recovery.

Mrs. C. E. Clarke entertained the Badminton Club on Sunday evening at her home. An exceptionally jolly evening was spent (all 12 o'clock, when the meeting adjourned to the Community Hall, where Mr. T. B. Reece continued the entertaining with his radio, and the young people danced till about 2 a.m., Miss Jessica Paynter helping with the piano.

On Tuesday night about thirty local dancers motored to Peachland, where they thoroughly enjoyed an excellent dance in the Veterans' Hall.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Hall on Tuesday afternoon. Owing to the bad weather, only fourteen members were present. The V.O.N. committee were in charge of the meeting and a pleasant afternoon was spent.

It is suggested that the Institute give a prize for the best skit put on by any Westbank club.

At St. George's Church, on Monday, the Rev. H. A. Solly united in marriage Edgar, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Taylor, and Geraldine Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Lightly. The bride, who looked dainty in pale blue crepe de chine, with hat to match, was given in marriage by her mother, in the unavoidable absence of her father, who is in Saskatchewan. Mrs. Lightly entertained a large family party to luncheon after the ceremony.

OKANAGAN CENTRE

Holiday week, as usual, was filled with social gatherings of families and friends, the children's Christmas party on Thursday afternoon, at the Community Hall, being the one big public gathering of the week. Sponsored by the Women's Institute, it was a very jolly affair, attended by nearly forty children and many of their parents and friends.

Mr. Wentworth provided and placed a splendid tree which was decorated by Mesdames Carter and Harrop, who constituted the committee on presents. Mrs. Brixton and Miss MacLennan arranged the tea-tables, which looked charming in green and red. All sorts of games dear to the hearts of children were played under the able supervision of Mrs. Cheesman and Mrs. Parker, and Father Christmas was the same jovial, benevolent old personage who has visited the Centre children for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Fallow were visitors at the latter's home in Armstrong over the Christmas holiday, returning on Wednesday accompanied by Mr. Fallow's sister for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Marshall left on the 21st for a week with the latter's niece, Mrs. Hugh Daubney, and family in Nanaimo.

The many friends of Miss Ellen Gled are congratulating her on her appointment to the position of teacher of the lower grades in the Winfield School which was made vacant by the resignation of Miss Botting.

Charles Parker is at home for the holidays from Vancouver, where he has been attending the Technical School. He expects to return on Saturday.

Will some of those wise in bird lore tell us the meaning of a flock of robins travelling north along the lake-shore this week, seemingly quite happy?

Mrs. Reeves, Miss Isobel Long and Mr. Geo. Reeves, Jr. are making a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Reeve's daughter, Mrs. Denkje, in Kamloops.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nuyens and family spent the Christmas week-end with the former's parents in Vernon.

The annual meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the Community Hall on the 11th inst., at 3.00 p.m. The executive urges a good attendance.

had them on the run for the most part of the game, though they used their height to advantage in intercepting many of the Kelowna team's passes. However, the locals made up for that by their quickness of recovering the ball and their good shooting. The latter was quite a treat, as for the past few games their shooting has been poor. The Kelowna boys were due to come out of their recent slump and they sure came out of it, and at the right time.

Don Poole, who was injured in the game with the Adamas, was back on the guard line-up for the locals and was up to his old bag of tricks as he was before. The Chapman brothers and Red Martin were always dangerous and showed the locals how they can shoot. Peden, who is a brother of the world-famous "Torchy" Peden, the bicycle rider, played a bang-up game but had not time to do much shooting, as he was kept busy looking after C. Pettman, who was all over the floor and was doing some great shooting and gathered in ten points during the game.

All of the locals played an improved game over the last few matches and they certainly deserved their win. No one of the team was particularly outstanding as every one did his bit and figured in the scoring column. It is well to note that the local guards scored 16 of the total points scored by the team. Campbell shone in the first half, when he got all of his points, a total of eight, but in the second half he was watched too carefully to get any points. Ryan and M. Meikle both worked well in the centre position, the latter turning in the best game he has for some time. G. Meikle was working like a steam engine on the guard line and gathered eight points while he was doing his guard work efficiently. C. Pettman found his shooting eye again and sank several of his usual long ones, while Griffith and McKay each were on their game, their shots being on the mark in most cases.

The game opened fast with the Canadian champions scoring in the first half minute of play when, after some nice passing, Robertson counted from the corner. A moment later, Martin scooped one up from underneath to send his team ahead four points. C. Pettman counted the first for Kelowna when C. Chapman fouled him while he was shooting and he made his free shot good. Robertson sank a long one from the side and the score stood six to one in favour of the visitors. Ryan counted the first field basket for Kelowna when, after six minutes of play, he scored a nice one from the key hole. Martin sank a couple of close-in shots to further increase the visitors' lead. M. Meikle replaced Ryan at centre and had not been on the floor hardly any time before he sank one from the corner. G. Meikle counted a free shot and Pettman got his first shot in the net when he sank a long one. With six minutes to play in the first half and the score standing 15 to 8 for the visitors, the locals put on a rally which the champions failed to stop and, with only three minutes to go, Kelowna tied the score at 16 all and the big crowd that was on hand went wild.

Campbell raced through to tie the score and he also sent the locals ahead when he scored on a beautiful one-handed shot from the key hole. In the last few minutes the visitors were unable to score, while the locals kept up their rally and scored some more baskets to further increase their lead. G. Meikle counted a long one from the corner to send the count up to 22-16, with one minute to go in the first half. Victoria called time out to check the rally. After the game was resumed, McKay scored on a nice shot from underneath to make it 24-16. There was no scoring in the last half minute of play. The half time score read, Blue Ribbons, 16, Kelowna, 24, and was the crowd in an uproar? One could hardly hear himself think! There was a good possibility of the Kelowna boys taking the Canadian champions into camp, but could they hold the lead in the second half? That was what every one was thinking. And in the final stanza the locals showed the home town fans that they could hold their lead and even increase it.

After the change over the locals kept up their good play and McKay scored again from the key hole. However, the champions worked two nice combination plays which each resulted in baskets by Robertson and A. Chapman, to cut the locals' lead to 26-20. Martin also found the net and came within four points of Kelowna. Griffith sent the local stock up once more when he counted on a wonderful back hand shot from the back line. Gordon Meikle sank a long one from the side and Pettman counted from underneath, while Robertson and A. Chapman each counted on nice shots. The game was getting faster and faster, the locals were doing a little bit of fouling and the visitors were making most of their free shots good. Ryan tricked his check nicely when under his own basket and made his shot count, to send the score to 37-30. With ten minutes of play left, it looked as though Kelowna were going to send the champions down to defeat, and they kept the high class ball up for the balance of the game. McKay counted again when he came out of a bunch of arms and legs to sink his shot from underneath. Robertson counted for the visitors, and the score board read 41-34. In the remaining five or six minutes Kelowna had the best of the play. The visitors were forcing the play, but the locals were equal to the occasion and still kept on scoring while the Blue Ribbons could only gather a free shot through the efforts of C. Chapman.

QUALITY MERCHANDISE

The game was exceedingly fast and the locals seemed to have puzzled the visitors, as in the last three minutes the Kelowna boys sank three baskets, and the crowd were now sure that the thing that happens once in a blue moon had almost happened and that in only a few more seconds the unusual would have occurred. Pettman and McKay each scored before the final whistle and when the final gun went the crowd just flocked all over the players and the floor, to congratulate the victors and the vanquished. It was a great game between two great teams, both played good ball and both played a clean game all the way. One thing is certain, and that is that the locals showed the fans and the citizens of the Orchard City that they have a team right here in their own town that is of championship calibre. This is a certainty now that they scored such an impressive victory over the present Canadian champions. Congratulations, gang, you sure did what many have said could be done!

The game was well refereed by Doc Thorpe and Doc Day.

In the preliminary fixture the local Intermediate "B" Boys took the short end of a 39 to 24 count.

Teams and scores:

Victoria Blue Ribbons: Robertson, 8; Imrie, Martin, 10; Caddell, A. Chapman, 9; C. Chapman, 8; Peden; Ross. Total, 35.

Kelowna Senior "B" Men: C. Pettman, 10; McKay, 8; Griffith, 4; H. Pettman; Ryan, 4; M. Meikle, 5; Campbell, 8; Poole; G. Meikle, 8. Total, 47.
